(b) if so, what his name, special qualifications and salary are;

(c) whether is is a fact that he is a retired officer of the Governments and that he had retired from service only a couple of months before his re-appointment.

(d) what the special need or urgency for the re-appointment of retired officer to the newly created and

(e) whether the appointment is consistent with the recommendation of Retrenchment and Reorganisation Committee?

Development Department.

ANSWER

(a) The anwer is in the affirmative.

(b), (c) and (d) Sri S. Dharmalinga Mudaliar who retired as Deputy Director of Agriculture in September 1948 was re-employed and appointed to the post in May 1949 for the reason that in his capacities as District Agricultural Officer and Regional Deputy Director of Agriculture in Salem, Coimbatore and Madura Districts, he did conspicuous Agricultural propoganda among the ryot population and advocated agricultural improvements which included "compost making'. His pay as Compost Development Officer plus pension will be same as what he was drawing at the time of his retirement-, viz., Rs.420/- The appointment of a Compost Development Officer was urgent in view of the food production drive.

(d) The appointment is not inconsistent with any recommendation of the Retrenchment and Reorganisation Committee.

R. KOTESWARA RAO,
DEPUTY SECRETARY TO GOVERNME
